"From the first time my wife and I volunteered for Special Reach, we felt an immediate connection - both to the incredible kids we serve and the wonderful staff and volunteers that support them. As a lifelong educator, I fully understand the importance of a support mechanism for families of special needs children, and I am honored and humbled to serve on the Board of Directors."

Professional Profile

Dr. Roland Rios has been a public educator for 25 years. He has been a teacher and administrator and currently serves as the Director Technology for the Ft. Sam Houston School District. He has a B.S. in Radio-Television-Film from U.T. Austin, an M.A. in Educational Administration from Trinity University, and an Ed.D. from the University of Texas at San Antonio. He is an active member of the Knights of Columbus and volunteers for BASIC (Brothers and Sisters in Christ) helping prepare meals for homeless families each week. He enjoys spending time with his wife of 26 years, Leticia, and their two grown children, Ariana and Aaron. His hobbies include photography and playing guitar.
